I love how she took a need and filled it with a great design and great product. I loved the one that I received. Soft and very very well made it is perfect to keep the little ones head warm and protected this winter. If you have a little one you should definitely get one of these. It will be worth it to know your little guy or gal is protected from the cold weather, wind, and ear, nose and throat infections. With it said to be a very cold winter why would you not.

The brand also offers special ear protection hats that feature an added benefit of 50% noise-reduction ear inserts, shielding infants and toddlers' delicate ears from loud sounds.

2013 Holiday Gift Guide
